

PLAY FAIR: It's a lesson we learned in Kindergarten.

A student from the Henry Viscardi School arrives for the first day of school.

Students from St. Mary's School for the Deaf participate in a school assembly.

A student from New York Institute for Special Education works on a project.

Please support a 3.8 percent increase to schools serving the state's deaf, blind and severely physically disabled students.

PLEASE SUPPORT FAIR FUNDING FOR ALL!

As the Legislature moves closer to agreeing on the 2014-15 state budget, we urge fair funding and investment in the 11 state-supported schools serving deaf, blind and severely physically disabled students.

The 4201 Schools Association asks members of the Legislature to increase direct investment in our schools by 3.8 percent, the same investment being provided to public school students.
