

St. Francis de Sales School for the Deaf held a Readathon for third- and sixth-graders on May 23

May 28, 2014

Students were assigned partners and used such things as correct sign choice, appropriate expression, pausing, phrasing and information, to communicate the stories. Students also were attentive to the needs and abilities of the audience.

